Computer News You Can Use

Online Training

Softchoice has released a new service for online learning called eSchool Essentials Everything Desktop. For a one-time flat rate of $40 per user you can use all of their online classes produced by Corporate Communications Interactive (CCI). These include Office 2000, Windows 2000/XP and Advanced Palm Essentials.

Several of our staff at the Center have tried these courses and found them instructional and easy to use. You certainly can't beat the price! For more information check out <http://www.softchoice.com/elearning>.
